

Easter At the Depot For Returned Soldiers

Hard boiled eggs will be added to the list of good things offered returning soldiers at the union depot on Easter Sunday and Monday, by the women's auxiliary to the war veterans' association. Dyed eggs in red and blue will be in evidence to go with the white ones, but for these the eggs must be new laid or the shells will crack and spoil the gift for eating. Salted eggs from the stores will crack.