

Private Robert McDaid, who went overseas with the original 28th battalion, returned to Port Arthur yesterday morning. He was wounded in June 1916. His parents reside at 125 South Court street.