

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ede, 306 Franklin street south, have received word that their son 429698 Sergeant W. S. Ede, M.M., will arrive home tomorrow, having crossed the Atlantic on the Corsican. Sergeant Ede is bringing back with him an English bride, whose home is at Barnes, west London, and to whom he was married last August. He has been twice wounded.

---