

about four hundred.

---

Mrs. Wiegand, 1017 Dease street, has this week welcomed her two brothers back from overseas. 199089 Private J. M. Goodwin left here with the 94th battalion, and was later transferred to the 141st. He has been a prisoner of war since October 28, 1917, and was only released when the armistice was signed. Mrs. Wiegand's other brother, 438453 Lance Corporal Fred Goodwin, was one of the original 52nd battalion men. He was all through the principal fighting and was twice wounded severely. He spent over a war year in hospital in England. He left and Port William in 1915.

deal
rd The Khartoum Shriners' club held