

derstood that a majority of this number have already landed in Canada.

Private Lawrence Reoch, returned from overseas this morning on the steamer Keewatin, after three years service in France and England. Private William Reoch, a brother, is still in England.

The Harmonic of the Northern Navy.