

will provide the music.

Private George Graham has returned to Port Arthur after nearly three years' service with the Canadian Engineers at the front.

The members of the Pasco band