

Amongst the local men returning home this afternoon was 438450 Private W. Foxton, 1312 Victoria avenue, who left here with the 52nd battalion, and has spent four years overseas. His father, 1036622 Corporal Foxton, who went with the 228th battalion, returned last April. Corporal Foxton was wounded in August, 1917, and spent some time in different hospitals in England.
