

Lance Corporal George Sidney Nicol, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Nicol, 67 Jean street, Port Arthur, who went overseas with the 141st battalion, arrived home this morning, having landed at Portland, Me., on Sunday on the hospital ship Essequibo. He was severely wounded in the shoulder and neck, and was to go to hospital at Toronto for an operation, but has been allowed fourteen days' leave at home before going there. He was transferred to the 44th battalion, and has seen much service in France. Other local men who returned on the same boat are: Private Linklater, Fort William; Lance Corporal Hay and Private Tourand, of Port Arthur.
