
CAPT. RIDGEWAY HERE.

Captain W. G. Ridgeway, M. C. and Bar, Chaplain of the Fifty-Second Battalion, accompanied by Mrs. Ridgeway, arrived in Port Arthur yesterday from overseas. Captain Ridgeway will preach at St. John's church, Port Arthur, tomorrow morning and at St. Paul's church, Fort William, in the evening. All Fifty-Second and other returned men are invited to attend the two services. Captain Ridgeway is the only clergyman below the rank of Bishop ever privileged to dedicate battalion colors on active service. The Captain has a special message for bereaved parents of men who have fallen in battle.
