

and family; R. M. Saxon, Toronto.

Lieutenant F. E. S. Shelley, of Port Arthur, who went away with the 94th battalion, passed through this morning by Canadian Pacific on his way to Winnipeg. He will return in a few days. He has been back from overseas some time, and has been staying at Sherbrooke, Que., his wife's home, where she has been living while he has been overseas. He was twice wounded, being shot in the hand once and losing the top of the second finger of his right hand.
