

The heavy artillery of the "Fighting Fifth" passed through Port Arthur yesterday morning enroute to Vancouver and Victoria. Several hundred men were on the special C. P. R. train. The troops arrived on the "Mauretania" and some stated that 14,000 troops would arrive within the next two weeks.