Lieut. Jeromé B. Eberts, son of Mrs. F. G. Eberts, Dyke block, was among the Canadian airmen who landed from the Celtic; and it is expected he will be home before the end of the week. Lieut. Eberts has been three years in khaki, enlisting first with the 94th. Later he was transferred to the 144th. Overseas, he reverted from the rank of lieutenant to get to the front, but in the meantime was selected with a number of others for training ed promotion to the rank of lieutenant. He was in active service in France on different sections of the front and following the signing of the armistice was engaged in flying machines across the channel. Before enlisting, he held the post of sport editor on the Times-Journal.
