

19.

Two returned soldiers' trains passed through Port Arthur this morning. The 9.20 train carried, besides ten local and district men, two coaches of returning Royal Air Force officers. The officers were especially pleased when told that Major Hawker had commenced his non-stop flight across the Atlantic.