

92 Machar avenue, Port Arthur.

Fort William has invested $15,000 in War Savings Stamps so far, and Port Arthur about $9,000. The organizers are disappointed that more employers do not organize thrift savings societies. The societies already in operation have had exceptional success. Every class of people—Sunday school classes, office staffs, store and factory staffs—are asked to help promote the sale of thrift stamps and W. S. S.

Sellers and Jones have received a